Dear Esther,

I would very much like to see you guys but I fear it cannot be arranged this week-end. We are going to visit my family in Toledo for Thanksgiving and we have just decided to move into a first floor apartment which we will do Dec 1. All this and trying to work really makes a trip impossible right now.

It would be very nice to ~~come~~<sup>go</sup> up to Madison and I hope I can arrange it soon. But I fear I will be immobilized during the weeks before and after Jan 20 when we expect our baby. Is there any hope of seeing you here? Several hours of Kodachrome watching await you.

Many thanks again for the invitation and regards to Josh & Cavalli's.
